School doesn't start in the fall, all summer long students attend Northridge High School.

Summer School

Lunch at freshmen orientation was the highlight of the day according to Jenny Stalter and Monica Spangle.

Breezy Cook and Morgan Tahara work to get the latest assignment done during summer typing.

While attending freshmen orientation, Jaime Santiago takes time out to eat his ice cream sandwich.

Venturing off from their peers Angel Myers and Missy Livingston dream of having their pictures in the team showcase.

Eric Johnson and Kila Haeck take time from the rigors of picture taking to have one taken of themselves.

In the wide open north lobby Mr. Rhodes, Mindy Martin, Annie Long, Mrs. Woodworth, Nicole Omars, Jeremy Delcamp, Danee Graybill, and Eric Johnson attend freshmen orientation.

Homecoming 96'

1996 Homecoming: King and Queen, Jeremy Neely and Angie Beier and their court: Matt Gibson, Tory Owens, Kyle Martin, Jason Bontrager, Travis Knuffman, Stacy Phum, Jill Klegsecker, Michelle Stephenson, Angie Bruens, and Julie Ferguson.

Lindsey Shaffer, Amber Bush, Ryan Forrest, Heather Beachy, and Bryan Whittington stand proud watching their last high school homecoming game.

Representing the class of 1997 beautifully, Jeremy Neely and Angie Beier were elected as the 1996-97 homecoming king and queen.

Boys Soccer

The Northridge High School soccer team completed what could be considered their most successful year ever.

With a record of 6-6-6, it could also be considered the season with the most unusual record. Winning the Bethany sectional in an overtime shootout against the favored Bethany team is a highlight of the season. The team showed a lot of progress through the season and set some standards for future teams to play up to.

Matt Davis keeps the ball under control while staying a few feet ahead of the competition.

Steve Schmitt (dark jersey) leaves every one behind with his ball handling skills.

Jackpot! Derrick Baker saves the opportunity from scoring.

SPIRIT WEEK

Joel Arky, for president, in the future maybe.

The spiritual being, Robert Lloyd, has come to see the students of NFB if they are in their school spirit.

Matt Davis, Nick Gezher, Salissa Shrock, Michelle Stephenson, Nick Davis, Darcy Carlson, Rodney Miller, Nate Bontrager, Jerry Lundervill, David Bartley, Brandi Fisher, and Dan Salisbury.

While concentrating on the golf ball, Geniese Trotter is ready for a hit.

After the cut, Sarah Gray hopes for the ball to sink in the hole.

Girls Golf

The girls golf team for 1997 had a season of rebuilding. With all five varsity players graduated last year, we knew that there was much work to be done. Our first need was to have enough players to field a team. With some recruiting and some interested incoming freshmen, the girls were able to have nine players during home and away matches. The only returning player was team captain Janelle Riegsecker. Her playing experience and enthusiasm helped her other junior classmates Sarah Gray, Kelly Gorsuch and Geniese Trotter bolster the varsity ranks. Sophomores Missy Hooley, Kim Connican and Amber Miller added talent and depth to the team. Incoming freshmen Danielle Schmidt and Stephanie Berry helped out in both varsity and junior varsity ranks. Overall we took our lumps with an 8-19 season. With lessons and much practice the future looks bright for the Northridge Carla golfers. -- Coach Cockman

Kelly Gorsuch takes a practice stroke just before hitting the ball in the hole.

Fore! Janelle Riegsecker follows through on her swing at the Oak Hills course.

With all her strength and might Stephanie Berry hits the ball.

Colorguard

Grouping together as practice, Amanda Schrock, Leah Smith, Krista McHaffa, and Jeni Drake get ready to go to another set.

Flanked by her guard members, Mes Augustine gives advice to Susie Plunk and Casey Keeler.

Concentration is the key. Alana Warlick does just that during an early morning practice.

During Hail of Eternal Glory, Roberta Miller and Destiny Nazz solo in the spotlight.

Another soloist, Kim Baer dances to the music in the marching band's show.

Sporting the cool band shirt, Brandy Hicks takes a moment to relax.

A tribute to marching, Jessica Koch does her part in the show.

Bridge To Paradise

Angie Slabaugh does a vocal interpretation of the song The Rose for her talent in the pageant.

Can You Feel The Love Tonight, played on an acoustic guitar by Anita Hinckley rang through the auditorium the afternoon of the pageant.

Holly Miller demonstrates what she has learned in the six years she's been in cheerleading by dancing to the song Trust and Shout.

Jenna Kauffman translates the story The Giving Tree by speaking her own language, sign language.

The pressure is on while all the contestants wait for the results of the judges' decisions. Contestants include: Holly Miller, Anita Hinckley, April Allison, Angie Slabaugh, Melissa Rush, Jenna Kauffman, Roberta Miller, Angie Beier, Mary Hulsey, Ruthanne Floria, and Tracy Yoder.

The 1997 Middlebury Junior Miss, Angie Beier looks forward to competing for Indiana Junior Miss in February.

The three winners of Junior Miss, as cameras flash to capture the accomplishments of April Allison, second runner-up, Tracy Yoder, first runner-up, and Angie Beier, our 1997 Junior Miss. The following categories were: Presence and Composure was a tie between April and Tracy. Physical Fitness was won by Angie. Panel Evaluation was won by Angie. Spirit of Junior Miss was also won by Angie. Scholastic Achievement was a tie between Angie and April. Performing Arts was won by Tracy.

Melana Ponte, a foreigner, is charged tonight, displays one of her many native dances on the Fall Dance.

Homecoming Dance

On the cold night of October 11, the Northridge football team played their homecoming game. Although they lost, they played long and hard. Immediately following the game there was a homecoming dance. With the new DJ, spectacular laser lights, and mystifying fog, it seemed like a fantasy to the students that waited so eagerly for 45 minutes to get into.

When the music started and the people finally began to dance, the old gym floor turned into a wild and exciting dance floor. For an hour and a half, people sweated to the old classics that we will always love to the hottest new dance beats that we are starting to love. Overall the dance was a great success and if you don't believe it, just check out how much fun these people are having.

Wow, look at Kyle Martin and Minn Grubert go as they dance to the newest dance craze Miksera at the Fall Dance.

Angie Heier sports her 3000 watts at the Fall Homecoming Dance. The students danced for The Vikings and the Vikings, The Vikings and the Vikings, The Vikings and the Vikings.

Wow, does Brandi Bardetto have down power or what? She really broke it out when she goes to the Homecoming Dance.

"Who are they?" says Bryon Bontrager to Dan Alberl and Eric Adams as they watch some clips at the Fall Dance.

At right: Gathering his thoughts Miah Grubert looks down the zip line he is about to conquer.

Now the adults get to have a little fun. Mr. Weaver gathers his thoughts as he prepares to climb the rock climbing wall.

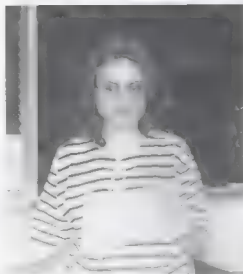

His maneuver worked on the way up, but does Nate Brown have an idea on how to get down?

"To present to athletes and coaches, and all whom they influence, the challenge and adventure of reversing the sexual, drug, and alcohol serving them in their relationships and in the fellowship of the church."

Speech Team

The speech team is for students who want to better their speaking skills by speaking for a competition. Students involved in this august follow:
 Front Row: Brandi Hicks, Amy Adams, Michelle Dolby, Katrina Onyskow, Heather Shurt, Miss Stockel Teacher.
 Back Row: Sarah Detweiler, Erica Haas, Tim Miller, Angelica Marchetto, Chad Cales, Holly Winkelmann, Vanessa Onyskow, T.J. Praskowy.

Katrina Onyskow releases one of her speeches with great levels of emotion.

Standing in perfect posture, Brandi Hicks polishes up on her poetry for an upcoming speech meet.

In the library you will find David Cusick, Brandon Frisby, and Brad Berry reading magazines and enjoying sitting around on the couch.

Robert Cassidy and Ken Engan do homework in the library.

Charles Bradshaw and Michael Grondz are two of the many students here at Northridge High School who thoroughly enjoy spending time in the library.

The School Nurse

Julie Delegrange pops a pill in between classes to help her with what she knows, what... Wow! That pill sure looks good!

See Mrs. Berkey smile. Mrs. Berkey is our school nurse. She is so good that if she were any cooler she would burst into an enormous cloud of coolness and float away. Her hat is pretty neat too.

See Erica Stephenson as she pretends to be sleeping. As amazing as those beds in the nurse's office can cure almost all types of illnesses in a matter of one hour.

Thomas Kutter communicates the feeling of his last piece of artwork in drawing class. As you can see, he is overwhelmed with excitement.

Somebody should put a warning label on those dirt-printing presses so Erica Haws won't keep crushing her hand.

What would our school do without our nurse in shining armor. Jocelyn Miller frantically tries to help Meryl Newhouse as she struggles for her life. This looks like another job for Mrs. Berkeley.

Mrs. Conway explains the principles of the constitution to Ray Trayer during Government first hour.

Mr. Nay scolds Ryan Brundetherger on his hat choice.

Trying not to get tackled, Ryan Brandenburger runs and makes a touch down.

Dustin Peck, Sean Berkey, Matt Johnson, and Sy Clements take a minute to talk about the next play as Greg Vandandingham walks off.

"Hey guys, the ball went that way!!!" Mr. Austin yells to boys in Freshmen P.E. class.

Daniele Alexandra has good form while participating in archery in freshman P.E.

Becky Williams and Kathy Keovilaysong watch while Kelly Schoenauer takes aim for the target.

Christy Drake, Becky Williams, and Erica Howell learn the basics in snorkeling.

While everyone else studies for a test, Brecca Putz demonstrates homonym testing on Miss Stiel's Language Arts class.

Auron Hargrove, Angela Greensides, Mike Gilbert, and Greg Miller study for their vocabulary test in Mrs. Weeks's L.A.T.P.

Taking a momentary pause, Miss Stielke reads over the answers on a test in her L.A.T.P. class.

Language Arts

Northridge High School has nine Language Arts teachers. This year welcomes back Mr. Lanctot. He taught at Goshen College during the 1995-96 school year. Language Arts is a required class. Students must take it for four years. Students have a variety of Language classes to choose from. Freshmen select from Honors L.A. 9 or traditional L.A. 9. Sophomores continue with L.A. 10. Juniors then have a choice of taking L.A.T.P. (Language Arts Technical Preparation) or American Literature. Seniors can then, for their final year of high school Language Arts, take L.A. 12 or World Literature. Other offerings are speech or creative writing.

Wrestling

Setting up his opponent from Plymouth, Ryan Klobaves goes for a two-pointing at 12.

The Northridge High School Wrestling Team record was 15-9, and the conference record was 1-6. The wrestling team finished 3rd at sectional, and 5th at conference. This year the N.H.S. wrestling team had a young lineup. There were 14 weight classes, and one weight class was forfeited all year. Coach Wickersham complemented the seniors. "They set high goals, worked hard, and finished the season well." He continued, "I would also like to thank Asst. Coach Mike Weadick, Jeff Kaminer, and Mr. Weaver. Asst. Coach Huffnagle will be kept in memory."

Attempting a two point single leg take down, Tory Owens plans to defeat his opponent from Plymouth.

Boys Swim Team

"We leave traces of ourselves wherever we go, on whatever we touch." The boys swim team has accomplished a great deal this season. Six swimmers were state qualifiers. For the first time ever, they won the Fishmen Relays. They finished with a 7-3 dual meet season. Coach Keller said,

"It is one of the most beautiful compensations of this life that we cannot sincerely help one another without helping ourselves and you accomplished many things by having a goal of Team Unity during this meet season. I thank you for the best season ever."

As Eric Frankenberger prepares to dive, Brent Schrader and David Gum go through their diving movements before their dives.

(At right) It's very important for a diver to go through the process of the dive before the actual dive. Brant Schrader demonstrates this process before a dive.

Boys Golf

The 1997 golf team has two players who played in the top 5 of the 1996 team which reached the state finals in Indianapolis. Seniors Mark Vogelzang and Bryan Whittington have been the leaders of a team that is in the rebuilding stages. The team has struggled to become a contender in 1997, but is promising for the future with no less than 8 players with varsity experience. Team members in addition to Vogelzang and Whittington, are juniors Paul Fortin, Matt Liechy, and Justin Weideman. Sophomores Brad Berry and David Gaskill, and Freshmen Kent Bjurstrom, Matt Gorsuch, Caleb Holdread, Travis Mast, and Brian Pestow.

Mark Vogelzang demonstrates how to putt properly

Bradley Berry waits for the perfect time to chip.

"Fore" David Gaskill sends his ball into the air for a birdie.

Paul Fortin lines up his shot for par.

Matthew Liechy concentrates on making his putt in Oak Hills.

Seniors of 1997

Through your hard work and dedication, you've reached a goal-- Graduation. Of course, there will be many more challenges to meet. At Coachmen Industries we've reached goals made years ago, but still strive to reach those made yesterday. It's how we grow as a company. You, too, should persist in your efforts to make the dreams of today the reality of tomorrow. By constantly reaching for those goals, you ensure a prosperous future.

I never expected to come to Goshen
College.

I thought it was too close to home, and I wanted my freedom and independence. To my surprise, GC gave me both. The people here are great and I have made many new friends who have the same morals, values and spiritual beliefs as me. I find that reassuring. I do not regret coming to Goshen College for one second!
